

CHALLENGE SUNDAY

During His final days on earth, Jesus continued to teach the disciples. He knew that even though His ministry was ending, the work of His followers was just beginning. Even as our campaign - Making Room - nears its completion, all of our prayers and sacrifices are being given for us to experience a new beginning.

In the days ahead, you are encouraged to ask God:

- “Are there any areas of my life that I have not fully surrendered to You?”
- “How do You want to use me to accomplish Your purposes in and through our church?”

There is a sense of urgency as we come to the closing days of the campaign. What we do today means so much for tomorrow. The campaign that we have begun will affect generations to come.

This coming Sunday, March 27, is Commitment Sunday — when we present our commitments as an act of worship. May it be a “defining moment” in the life of our church!

Q&A

I already tithe to the general budget and feel like that is all I can do. Am I wrong?

Only you and the Lord can decide how much you can give. No gift is too small to count. If each one does as God directs, then He will faithfully provide.

Why do I need to make a written commitment?

The total amount of commitments will be used to forecast future income and to establish a realistic construction budget and timetable.

ONE LAST QUESTION FOR YOU:

Is there anything you need clarified before you sacrificially commit to the Making Room Campaign? If so, please contact one of the following people:
